

Everyone Else • 22/39 • Sayyida Ruqayya bint al-Husayn

The Youngest One. Ruqayya was younger than Sakina, and she did not survive the captivity that followed Karbala. Five items, no event print, dateless.

One style for the whole line — Fraunces and Nunito Sans, cut paper, the person on a stamp. Still open where it shows: the fact panel is TO VERIFY and the return address is not set.

ENVELOPE — C5, 229 × 162 MM

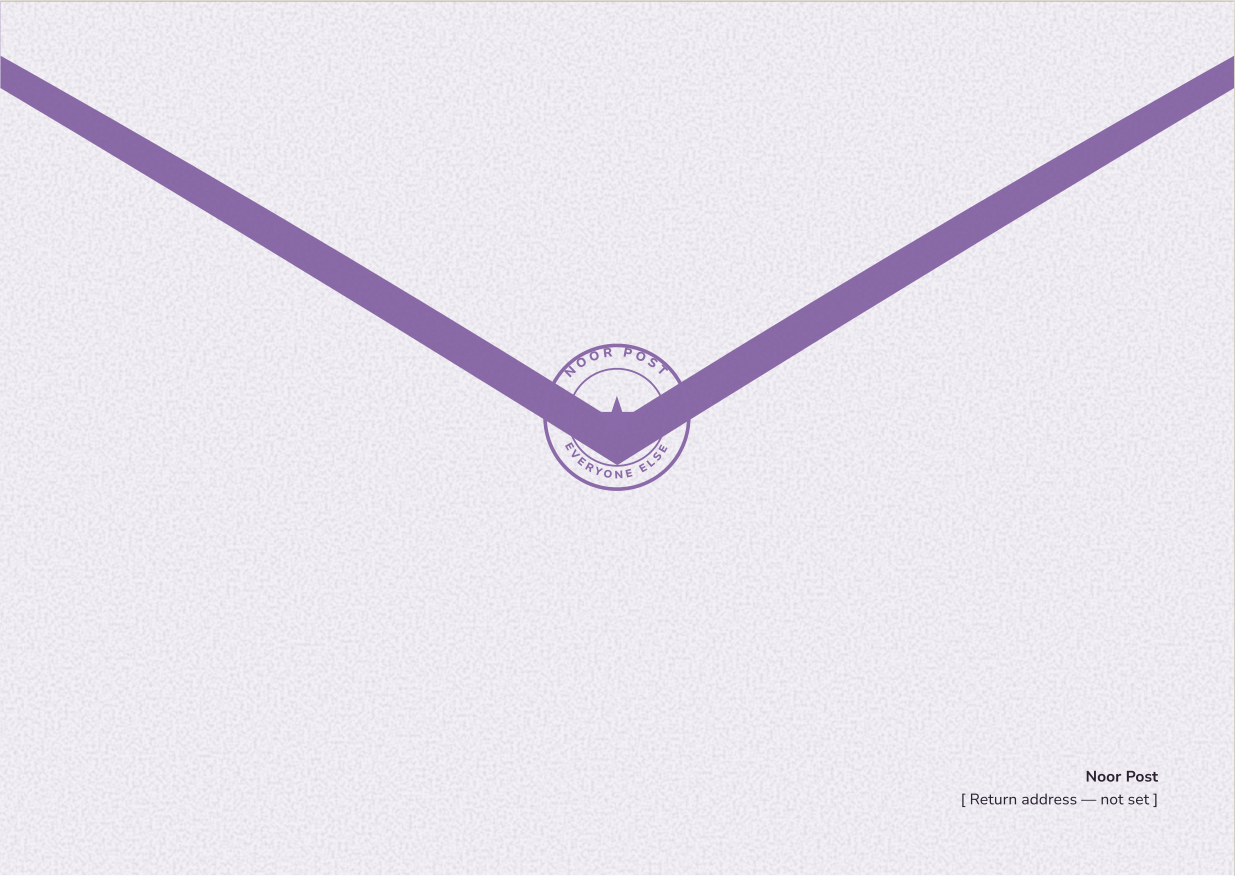

NOOR POST · EVERYONE ELSE

Ruqayya was younger than Sakina, and she did not survive the captivity that followed Karbala.

FOR

[Child's name]

INSIDE THE FLAP

EVERYONE ELSE •
SAYYIDA RUQAYYA BINT
AL-HUSAYN • INSIDE THE
FLAP

Open together.

● is the grown-up. ○ is you.

- 1 The letter — read it out loud, ● and ○ taking turns
- 2 The hadith card
- 3 The print
- 4 The stickers
- 5 The postcard

FACT PANEL

Sayyida Ruqayya bint al-Husayn

- Who she was. A young daughter of Imam Husayn, among the children taken captive after Karbala.
- What she experienced. The march from Kufa to Damascus as a small child, having just lost her father, in the same captivity Sakina and Zaynab endured.
- What happened to her. By most accounts, she died in Damascus shortly after the captives arrived there.
- What stands today. A shrine in Damascus carries her name, and continues to be visited by pilgrims who come specifically for her.
- Why she is in this envelope. Ruqayya was younger than Sakina, and she did not survive the captivity that followed Karbala.

Accounts of her exact age and the circumstances of her death vary, and are held here loosely rather than asserted precisely.

UNVERIFIED TO VERIFY

EVERYONE ELSE • SAYYIDA RUQAYYA BINT AL-HUSAYN

The Youngest One

• is the grown-up • ◦ is you • •◦ is together

- There is a shrine in the middle of Damascus with people in it at every hour of the day, and they have been coming for twelve hundred years. It is for a child.

◦ How old was she?

- Small. Small enough that on a long march somebody had to carry her part of the way. Her name was Ruqayya, and her father was Imam Husayn.

◦ Where was she going?

- Nowhere she chose. After Karbala the people left alive from that family were taken as captives — first to Kufa, and then the long road north to Damascus. She walked most of it.

◦ What was in Damascus?

- The caliph's palace. The road ended at the door of the same government that had sent the army in the first place — eight hundred miles of walking, to be shown to the people responsible for the walking.

◦ Did she know what happened?

THE YOUNGEST ONE • CONTINUED

- Not the reasons. She was far too young for the reasons, and nobody sat down and explained them to her. She knew the one thing that mattered to her, which was that her father was gone and was not coming back for her.

- What happened to her there?

- She died in Damascus, not long after they arrived. A small child at the end of a hard road, who did not get up from it. The accounts do not agree on her age, and they do not agree on much else about her either.

- Is that the whole story?

- No. That is the middle of it. The end of it is the room full of people, all these centuries later, who never met her and come anyway.

- Who would still visit you? Say one name out loud.

- She never commanded anything and never made a speech. There is no decision in her story to admire, and people come in their thousands regardless. She is remembered for what she carried, at an age when nobody expects a person to carry anything at all.

SAY THIS ONE TOGETHER

•◦

The smallest one on that road. The one the city still comes for.

Then the hadith card.

FIRST EDITION · 22/39

IMAM HUSAYN SAID

“O son, beware of wronging him who does not have a supporter except God the Majestic.”

Imam Husayn

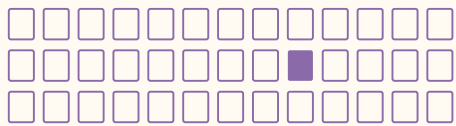

NOT A SILSILA SEGMENT · THIS SET HAS ITS OWN CHAIN

NOOR POST · EVERYONE ELSE

The other chain

The box holds fourteen cards, one for each of the Fourteen.
This set is the people around them: thirty-nine cards, collected in any order.

First edition · thirty-nine cards

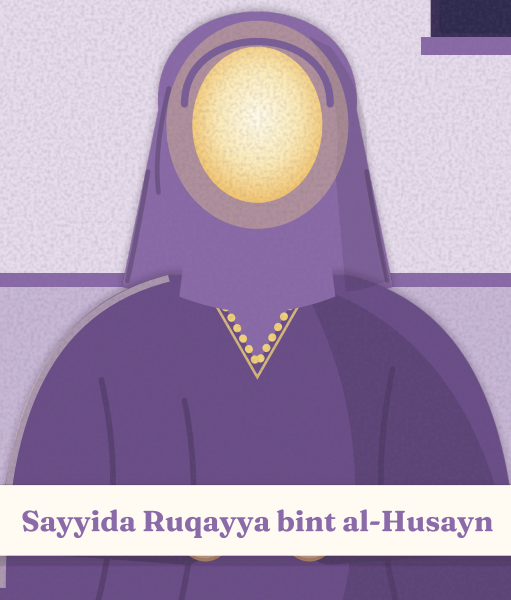

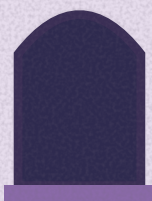

IN OUR WORDS

Never be unfair to someone who has nobody to stand up for them except God.

Noor Post's own words, not the translation.

Tuhaf al-Uqul, short maxims of Imam al-Husayn, no. 10. Translated by Badr Shahin, Ansariyan Publications, Qum.

Back — its own chain, no silsila number

Sayyida Ruqayya bint al-Husayn

We opened this one together.

- _____
- _____

Post it back to us, or keep it. Either is right.

Noor Post

[Return address — not set]
