

Everyone Else • 19/39 • Sakina bint al-Husayn

Old Enough to Never Forget Him. Sakina was a small child at Karbala, and what she carried afterward was memory, not an army.
Five items, no event print, dateless.

One style for the whole line — Fraunces and Nunito Sans, cut paper, the person on a stamp. Still open where it shows: the fact panel is TO VERIFY and the return address is not set.

ENVELOPE — C5, 229 × 162 MM

NOOR POST · EVERYONE ELSE

Sakina was a small child at Karbala, and what she carried afterward was memory, not an army.

FOR

[Child's name]

SAKINA BINT AL-HUSAYN

FIRST EDITION · 19/39

INSIDE THE FLAP

EVERYONE ELSE · SAKINA
BINT AL-HUSAYN · INSIDE
THE FLAP

Open together.

● is the grown-up. ○ is you.

- 1 The letter — read it out loud, ● and ○ taking turns
- 2 The hadith card
- 3 The print
- 4 The stickers
- 5 The postcard

FACT PANEL

Sakina bint al-Husayn

- Who she was. A young daughter of Imam Husayn, present at Karbala as a small child.
- What she experienced. The events at Karbala, and the captivity that followed, while still a child needing care herself.
- What she is remembered for. Not an action, but a depth of attachment and grief for her father that the accounts describe as remarkable even accounting for her age.
- Why that is worth including here. Most of this box tells its stories through decisions made and things done. Sakina's story is the quiet counterpart to that — carried, not performed.
- Why she is in this envelope. Sakina was a small child at Karbala, and what she carried afterward was memory, not an army.

Accounts of her later life vary, and are held here loosely rather than asserted precisely.

UNVERIFIED TO VARY

EVERYONE ELSE · SAKINA BINT AL-HUSAYN

Old Enough to Never Forget Him

• is the grown-up · ○ is you · ●○ is together

- Sakina was a small child, still young enough to need looking after, when she was at Karbala together with her father, Imam Husayn.

○ Was she old enough to actually understand what was happening around her?

- Old enough to be frightened by it, and old enough to love her father completely, and to remember him clearly for the rest of her whole life — which turned out, in the end, to be enough.

○ What happened to her afterward, once it was over?

- She survived, and was taken with the other captives on the long, hard march that followed — still a child, carrying nothing except what a child actually carries with them: memory, and grief, and a love that did not fade with time.

○ Is that remembered as something important, even though she didn't do anything?

OLD ENOUGH TO NEVER FORGET HIM • CONTINUED

- It is remembered, and carefully. Not a dramatic act, not a decision made under pressure like some of the others in this box — just a child's loyalty to her father, kept whole through everything that came after.

- Why does that matter, if she didn't actually do anything herself?

- Because the story of that day usually gets told through decisions, and speeches, and who did what. Sakina's part of it is quieter than any of that, and just as real for being quiet.

- Do you think a child's grief counts as much as a grown-up's does?

- It should. It rarely gets treated that way, which is exactly why this envelope exists — to say plainly that it does.

- Is there someone you'd remember clearly, years later? Say who, out loud.

- Most people have somebody like that, if they actually stop to think about it. Sakina's whole part in this story is that kind of love, held onto, by a child.

SAY THIS ONE TOGETHER

•◦

She was young enough to need looking after, and old enough to never once forget him.

Then the hadith card.

FIRST EDITION · 19/39

NO SAYING SELECTED

Blocked on a source — nothing prints here until its row on citation-sheet.md reads V

NOT A SILSILA SEGMENT · THIS SET HAS ITS OWN CHAIN

NOOR POST · EVERYONE ELSE

The other chain

The box holds fourteen cards, one for each of the Fourteen.
This set is the people around them: thirty-nine cards, collected in any order.

First edition · thirty-nine cards

Blocked: Tuhaf's Imam al-Husayn short-maxims section is exhausted.

Back — its own chain, no silsila number

Sakina bint al-Husayn

We opened this one together.

• _____

○ _____

Post it back to us, or keep it. Either is right.

STAMP

Noor Post

[ Return address — not set ]

_____

_____

